NEWSLETTER

It is with mixed feelings that I write to inform you of my imminent departure from France at the end of my tour of duty. As the saying goes, every long road comes to an end and so is my long stay in France. I leave France at the end of August 2009 on reposting to Accra, saddened at the thought of leaving very good friends and acquaintances behind.

In spite of this, I am glad to announce the arrival of Ms. Rita Krystine HAGAN, Counsellor, as my replacement to head the Consular Section.

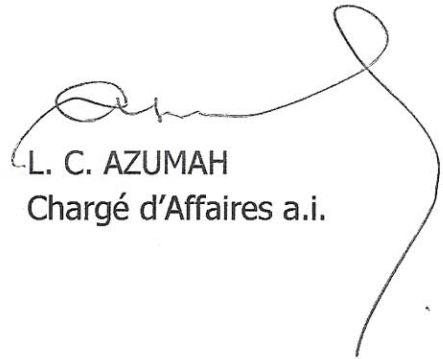

I take this opportunity to express my heartfelt appreciation for the support and cooperation enjoyed from the various Ghanaian community and Church leaders as well as the warmth showed me by each and every member of the Ghanaian community in France. I know that you will surely extend in the same measure your warmth and support to Ms. Hagan as well.

It is my fervent hope that we shall remain in touch and continue to serve mother Ghana in our diverse ways.

May God bless you all.
